02 Privacy Policy

WHAT THIS SITE DOES, AND DOESN'T, DO WITH VISITOR DATA

2.1 No Backend

This is a static website — there's no server-side database, account system, or backend collecting information about visitors.

2.2 Contact and Compose Forms

The subject and message fields on the compose pages stay in your browser. Tapping Send builds a pre-filled draft and hands it to your own email app — nothing is transmitted to or stored by this site.

2.3 Cookies

This site sets one small cookie, only after you respond to the cookie notice, to remember whether you accepted or declined it so it doesn't ask again. That's the only thing it does — this site still doesn't run analytics or tracking scripts, and nothing about you is collected.

2.4 Fonts

Typefaces are loaded from Google Fonts. Loading them may share basic technical details, like your IP address, with Google under Google's own privacy policy.

2.5 External Links

TikTok, Instagram, Snapchat, X, and WhatsApp each have their own privacy policies that apply once you leave this site.

2.6 Contact Card

The Contact Card option downloads a small file containing the site owner's own details. It doesn't collect anything about you.

2.7 Questions

Questions about this policy can be sent through the Contact section on the homepage.
